Clichés, Stereotypes, Prejudices

Clichés, Stereotypes, prejudices How is it possible to live together?

Willkommen, Merhaba and Welcome dear students,

This seminar offer includes the topic of clichés, prejudices and discrimination; Ways to Positive Togetherness.

In this seminar we want to deal with our own clichés and prejudices against other countries or groups as well as with the clichés and prejudices of others against our countries. Together, we want to consider how prejudices can be counteracted and how we can contribute to conflict de-escalation and reconciliation. We will actively work with group work and exercises

We wish all participants an inspiring, insightful and exciting weekend, where you can network internationally and make good friends, with ideas for projects in the future that can enrich the human being and your own communities; because only to the extent that we grow as human beings, we can also take our environment with us in an empowering way!

The seminar will be interactive, so that we can all enrich each other.

Cathy Plato, STUBE Baden-Württemberg
